Dinner Attire

At kids camp, we will be having themes at each of our dinner meals. We ask each camper to participate by dressing appropriately for each evening's dinner.

Please, no expensive items.

Funky Formal – Wear anything old formal (like old prom dresses, old flower girl dresses, anything funky, big black bow tie and over sized shirts, etc.). Or even get a tie and blazer and wear them with those plaid slacks that dad thinks will some day come back into style. It does not matter if it fits.

GLOW (NEON)— Wear anything that is soooo bright that you need sunglasses just to look at you! Neon Green Glasses, Neon Pink Top, Neon Yellow Shorts...Let those colors GLOW!!!

Please be sure your child has had a good lunch before coming to camp. Our first meal together as a camp will be dinner on Wednesday night at 5pm.

Mail Call-

To mail your care packages and letters to your camper(s) please use this address:

Camp Cedar Crest

PO Box 179

Running Springs, Ca 92382

Attn: On Mission Kids Camp (your child's name-Clearly Written)

Please send lots of mail and photos of your family to your kid(s).Camp Cedar Crest suggests that you mail your letters a week before camp to ensure the letters will be there in time for Kids Camp. You can bring pre-written and pre-dated letters when you drop off your child at camp. Please label mail/packages with your child's first and last name AND your church name. Do not send anything larger than a 7" x 10" envelope/package and no toys please.

*When writing letters to your children please don't say "I miss you," instead say "We will be so proud of you when we see you on Saturday"**

Phone Policy-

There are phones, but they are only for emergencies! If a problem or an emergency occurs, one of our directing staff will call immediately.

No cell phones are allowed for campers.

If you have an emergency, call your church office and they will contact the camp.

Please no visitors – it is disruptive to the camp routine.
